

DOCKMEN RETURN AT OLD PAY AFTER BIG LOSS IN WAGE

Forfeited $5,000,000 In Salary
In Four Weeks' Unauthorized Strike.

Longshoremen returned to work this morning on every pier in the harbor with the exception of those controlled by coastwise lines. About 1,500 men ordinarily employed on these piers did not return. As a result the Savannah and the Old Dominion piers were working with part crews, the Southern Pacific piers were idle and the Clyde and Mallory piers were being operated by non-union men.

The strike of the deepsea longshoremen was formally ended last night when between 2,000 and 3,000 insurgents, under the leadership of Richard J. Butler voted unanimously to return to work at the old scale of 65 cents an hour and $1.00 for overtime. For practical purposes, however, the strike ended the day before when enough employees to man the piers returned to work under the urging of T. V. O'Connor and other officials of the International Longshoremen's Association.

The strike was opposed from the beginning by officers of the international union, who sought to have the workers stand by their agreement to accept the award of the National Adjustment Commission. Despite the efforts of the union leaders, however, the tie-up was almost complete for three weeks.

The loss occasioned by the unauthorized strike was enormous and widespread. The effects of the walkout were felt in many parts of the world. Food shortages in Europe were made more acute. Porto Rico was brought close to famine conditions. The United States was placed on a sugar ration basis. The loss to shipping interests was figured as high as $1,500,000 a day during the height of the strike.

Most severe of all, however, was the loss in wages suffered by the longshoremen themselves. The number of men out of employment was as high as 40,000 and averaged 30,000 for the four weeks' tie-up. The men forfeited in pay between $4,000,000 and $5,000,000. The strike being without the sanction of the union, no strike benefits were paid. The men did not receive a single concession in return for the great monetary loss they suffered. All they got out of it was the "satisfaction" some of the radicals derived from the statement made by Tom Weldon, one of the radical leaders: "We gave them a d—d good fight."

The strike began Oct. 6 and 7 in a spontaneous walkout of the pier workers as soon as they learned of the award of the National Adjustment Commission of the United States Shipping Board. This commission was composed of two representatives of the longshoremen's union—President T. V. O'Connor and Vice President Joseph Ryan—two representatives of the shipping interests and Prof. William Z. Ripley, appointed by the Government. The men demanded $1 an hour and $2 for overtime, as against 65 cents an hour and $1 for overtime, which had been the prevailing wage. The Commission granted 70 cents an hour and $1.10 for overtime, with the promise that if living costs were not reduced by Dec. 1 the case would be reopened.

A few returned to work the last two weeks on this basis. Despite the action of the radicals in voting last night to return under the old scale and ignore what they termed the "Woolworth increase," shipping men to-day instructed stevedores to pay all workers the scale fixed by the Adjustment Commission.

The line least affected by the strike was the army transport service. As soon as the tieup came, regular soldiers were ordered to the piers and loaded and unloaded transports. It was not until the final settlement of the strike to-day that the soldiers were relieved.

At the beginning of the strike President T. V. O'Connor charged that it was due to I. W. W. influences and throughout the trouble the I. W. W. agitators were active in their attempts to prevent the men from returning to work.

Two men charged with distributing I. W. W. literature in front of the longshoremen's headquarters will be up for trial in the Jefferson Market Court to-morrow.

Auto Victim Identified.

The body of the man found at Monticello and Fairview Avenues, Jersey City, on Tuesday night, has been identified as that of William B. Fitzhenry, twenty-six years old, recently discharged from the army after overseas service, who lived at No. 354 Mercer Street. He was escorting two young women home when an automobile ran him down.

WOMAN DOCTOR INJURED.

Bellevue Physician Struck From Ambulance in Crash.

Dr. L. M. Moench, a woman physician at Bellevue Hospital, was thrown from an ambulance to the street this afternoon by Frank Porter when the driver of the ambulance sought to avoid a collision with a truck driven by A. Daniels of No. 437 5th Street, who has with him Max Hickman of No. 554 Grand Street. The truck bumped into the ambulance. Dr. Moench and the two men on the seat were thrown out.

All three were attended at Bellevue, where Daniels told the police that he had lost control of his machine. No one was seriously hurt and there were no arrests.
